

MARSHALL COUNTY 4-H FEDERATION SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose: The scholarships are to be given in recognition of outstanding achievement and work completed in the 4-H program of the county. It is also intended as an encouragement to further one's education.

Selection to be based upon:

1. Any boy or girl who graduates from the 4-H program or is a current member.
2. Scholarships will be awarded to recipients after completion of their first semester or second quarter of college; technical institute or accredited school. Applicants must turn in grades and have at least a 2.0 or better grade average.
3. There shall be two scholarships each of $250 to be funded by the Federation treasury.
4. The scholarships shall be awarded annually at the Leaders' Recognition Banquet.
5. Scholarship money will be sent directly to the recipient upon receipt of proof of completion of item #2 above.
6. The Awards Committee will consist of County Extension Committee members to be appointed by the 4-H Coordinator.
7. The candidates will file this application in the Extension Office no later than October 1.
